

If I were with you,
We would...

*Go to the Ice Peaks

(and possibly break 125,486 bones in our body...)

Because of Israel's high temperatures, there is no chance of skating on frozen lakes.

However, we have managed to trick Mother Nature by faking it in ice halls 😊

*Hang out at the beach

Rest, sun tan, swim and tan some more.

And for the romantics of you, there is nothing better than a picnic at the beach by the sunset.

* Visit Tel Aviv... The city that NEVER sleeps parties, shopping, hotels, art,

shopping, beaches,
restaurants,
everything in one city

Oh... and SHOPPING too!

*Go hiking...

(And probably break the bones that are still in tact after the ice skating)

Israel has been blessed with beautiful natural and man-made views of all kinds.

From the desert In the south, to the antiques in Jerusalem and the green north... Israel might be small, but it has it all! 😊

Can you solve this math problem?

A 16-year-old girl studies for 8 hours a day at school, 6 days a week.

She also does homework and studies for tests for 3 hours a day on a regular basis (and 5 on a Saturday).

Does she have life?

*So, study...?

No Way!
